

How much do teenagers know about staying safe online?

How much do teenagers know about staying safe online?

- Technology in the classroom
- Vast amount of resources
- Authentic language models
- Practise language skills on own devices

Great risks that are hidden beyond the internet

- Age-inappropriate websites
- Conduct
- Sexting
- Contact
- Get in trouble

Recent survey from NSPCC

- Encouraging young people to talk about their experiences online
- The real meaning of a 'friend'

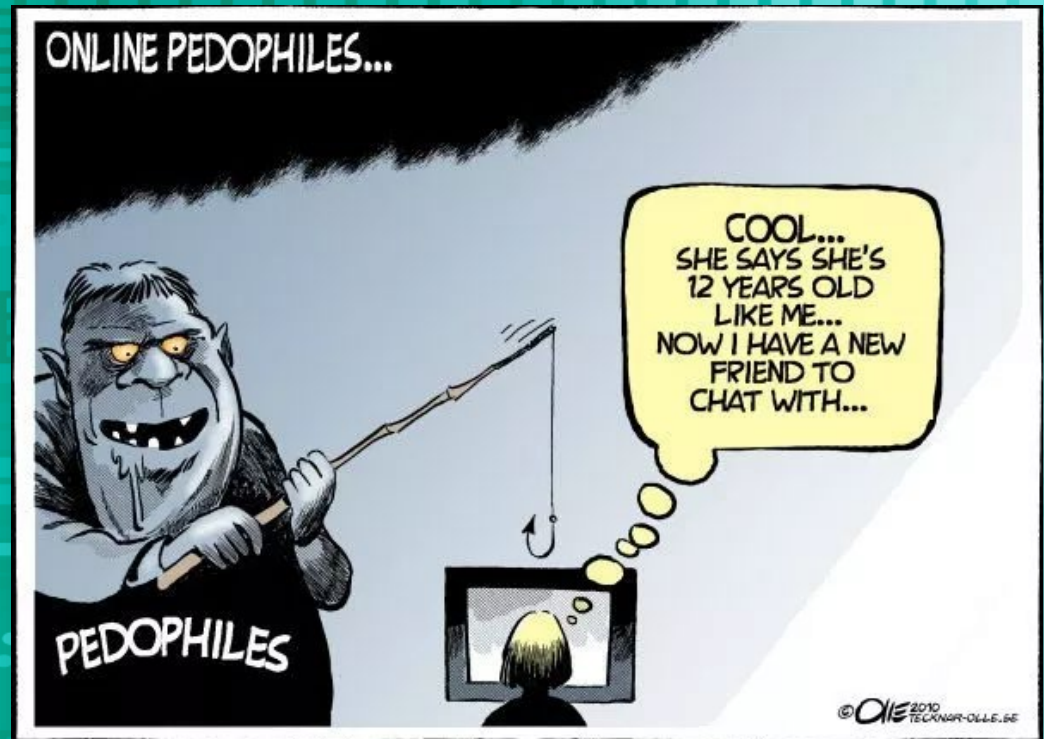

Talking to young learners about e-safety

- Internet- extremely important for young people
- Talk about e-safety with children

Online pedophiles

- the collector
- the collector/
distributor
- the user/abuser
- the “occasional”
user

Dark Net

- Isn't indexed by search engines
- Criminal activity

Dark Net market

This is the original poster printed with fluorescent ink, which glows in the dark. This ad piece was located next to a light switch. With the lights on, you see the piece like this. When the lights are off, a new image will appear.

Product	Price	Quantity
We kill your target in the USA/Canada	10000 USD = 74.036 $	1 X Buy now
We kill your target in the European Union	12000 USD = 88.843 $	1 X Buy now

This is a simulation of how the poster is with the lights off: the glowing ink printed on the poster shines in the dark, showing this message.

Tips for helping learners stay safe online

Thank you for the attention

Prepared by: Mihaela Angelova
Tina Panova
from Varna, Bulgaria