

The opinion of the famous people about the discrimination,
racism and feminism

If we cannot now end our differences, at least we can help make the world safe for diversity.

John F. Kennedy

Maya Angelou

- ▶ “As far as I knew white women were never lonely, except in books. White men adored them, Black men desired them and Black women worked for them.”

Michael Jordan

- ▶ “I realize that I'm black, but I like to be viewed as a person, and this is everybody's wish.”

Martin Luther King

- ▶ “I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character.”

Rosa Parks

- ▶ “Racism is still with us. But it is up to us to prepare our children for what they have to meet, and, hopefully, we shall overcome.”

Feminism is not here to dictate to you. It's not prescriptive, it's not dogmatic. All we are here to do is give you a choice.

- ▶ “I am from Britain and think it is right that as a woman I am paid the same as my male counterparts. I think it is right that I should be able to make decisions about my own body. I think it is right that women be involved on my behalf in the policies and decision-making of my country. I think it is right that socially I am afforded the same respect as men. But sadly I can say that there is no one country in the world where all women can expect to receive these rights. No country in the world can yet say they have achieved gender equality.”

Emma Watson

There should be no discrimination against languages people speak, skin color, or religion.
