

Discrimination description of the chosen pictures by German students

Religion (Jewish):

Religion was a discriminated in Germany because Jewish people were persecuted and killed by the Nazis during the Third Reich.

Sex:

Women had no rights and were not allowed to work and vote.

Domestic violence without legal measures:

Men could beat their their wives without fear of legal action. Women were the property of their husbands.

Origin/culture:

After the first and second world war many people came to help to rebuild Germany. Their culture and appearance were so very differnt to the German culture that the people in Germany discriminated them.

People with disabilities :

People with disabilities were not considered to be jull-fledged people. They were often housed in homes, isolated from the rest of society.

Different layers, money:

Poor people had been considered inferior by wealthy people.

Police/ military:

The Germans were monitored by the police and the military. Many were afraid of the so called "sittenpolizei".

Von Nina Heisterkamp, Celina Eberts & Khira Kusemann